Our Lenten journey has come to completion. We accompanied Jesus all the way from the desert of temptation to his tomb. We had a sense of direction and the tension grew as we closed in on the city of Jerusalem. Now we have arrived and find that we have crossed a threshold into a different kind of space. We are not about to leave for a new destination so much as to explore the place where we have arrived. In the much loved words from T. S. Eliot's poem Little Gidding : "We shall not cease from exploration, and the end of all our exploring will be to arrive where we started and know the place for the first time." We spend the next fifty days discovering how different the world looks in the light of the resurrection.

This means that Pentecost is not our goal, as if we were deprived of the Holy Spirit until then. On the contrary, we spend the entire fifty days immersed in the Spirit. In partnership with John's gospel, the Spirit leads us into our heart of hearts where divine love dwells. In partnership with the Acts of the Apostles, the Spirit sends us out on our mission to announce good news. It's a spirited season from start to finish.

THE SYMBOLS OF EASTER

Prayer for the Season

The symbols of Easter are also the symbols for the entire liturgical life of the Church. In all sacraments, particularly Baptism, simple elements from life are brought forward and made sacred.

Light, water, clothing, oil, and in a unique way, bread and wine are transformed from ordinary objects into the gift of God's grace and presence with us, and we too are transformed into images of Christ. Let us pray with these symbols of God's life with us.

UNDERSTANDING THE CHURCH'S EASTER TRADITION

The three days from Holy Thursday evening until Easter Sunday evening are known as the Triduum (a Latin word meaning 'three days'). During these three holy days the Church remembers Jesus' suffering, death and resurrection. The Easter Vigil and the celebrations of Easter Sunday bring the Triduum to a joyful conclusion. It is such an important feast that the resurrection of Jesus Christ is celebrated over fifty days, from Easter to Pentecost.

The Easter Vigil and the Symbols of Easter

In the early Church the Easter Vigil lasted from sunset on Saturday until dawn on Easter Sunday. The ceremonies are now shortened but, basically, they follow this structure:

1. A Service of Light - The community gathers in darkness around the Easter fire which is blessed and made holy. From it the Paschal candle is lit. This is our symbol of the risen Christ. From this great candle our own small candles are lit. Holding high 'the light of Christ', we process into the darkened church where the Exsultet is sung with great joy.
2. The Liturgy of the Word - Here the stories of the key events of the Old and New Testaments are read. This culminates in the proclamation of Jesus' resurrection.
3. The Liturgy of Baptism - The Easter water is blessed and the Liturgy of Baptism takes place. In the early Church, new members were baptised only at Easter—the season of new life in Christ. Baptism, particularly by immersion, symbolises a 'dying' with Christ, or a kind of 'drowning' to one's old life and rising to a new one. The newly baptised are anointed with oil and clothed in white as a symbol of 'putting on Christ'. They are given a lighted candle as a reminder to keep the flame of faith alive in their hearts.
4. The Liturgy of the Eucharist - After baptism, the Liturgy of the Eucharist begins. In the early Church the newly baptised were led to the table to participate in the Eucharist for the first time. The eucharistic bread is made from grains that have been ground, kneaded and baked. It is made to be broken and shared. The wine is made from grapes that have been crushed. It is made to be poured out and shared. These are symbols of life, nourishment and celebration. In the Eucharist we take the bread – Jesus' broken body – in our hands. We drink the wine of Easter, his blood poured out. We remember Jesus. We are nourished to become the Body of Christ in our world today.

Taking Action

St Augustine wrote that we are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song. The Easter season calls us as Easter people to serve others. Accounts of the early church record that Christians were marked by their love for one another. That love was reflected in service to all, especially those most in need. Since the Acts of the Apostles sets the agenda for the 50 days we, as modern-day apostles, must act! If we truly become Easter people, we will look like those first Christians in our efforts to live the good news of the Gospel, and our acts of justice and generosity will have an influence in the lives of many.

Happy Easter from all at Caritas Australia!

SIGN AN EPETITION AGAINST EUTHANASIA LAWS IN NSW

Archbishop Anthony Fisher OP has asked Catholics to support an e-petition launched by Upper House MLC Greg Donnelly opposing proposed euthanasia laws in NSW.

A parliamentary committee has recommended that the Legislative Council proceed with consideration of the bill. The unwillingness of the Committee to take a position on the bill means we need to fight even harder.

To demonstrate your opposition to the proposed laws, sign the e-petition here

WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES

The 2022 World Meeting of Families will be marked in the Archdiocese of Sydney with a local diocesan celebration. This local gathering will take place from Friday 24 June to Sunday 26 June. Initiatives will include a local parish celebration, an opportunity for families to make pilgrimages to sacred locations within the Archdiocese, and will culminate with a Mass celebrated by Archbishop Anthony Fisher OP with an associated Sunday afternoon 'Festival of Families'.
