Each of the writings we hear from through the Easter season – the Acts of the Apostles, the Apocalypse/Revelation, and the gospel of John – has its own take on time.

Luke, the author of Acts, allows forty days to elapse between Jesus' resurrection and ascension, with a further ten days before the gift of the Spirit at Pentecost. John, by contrast, has Jesus' resurrection, appearance to the disciples and imparting of the Spirit all occurring on Easter Day, with a supplementary appearance to Thomas a week later. The Apocalypse is different again. It is written with an eye on the end times when the power of evil will be finally overthrown.

This might all seem dizzily disconcerting, but in effect each work operates on the “now and not yet” principle. Despite their differing timeframes, they all declare that by his death and resurrection Jesus has definitively overcome the power of sin and death. The baptised share in this victory and are gifted with the Spirit to live accordingly. However, the work of embedding that victory in human hearts and extending it across the face of the earth will remain in progress until the end of time.

We have fifty days of grace to take the paschal mystery to heart and to proclaim it to the world.

WHAT IS THE LITURGICAL COLOR FOR THE SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER?

Black for centuries was the traditional color for funerals, but in the past fifty years many liturgical churches have preferred to use White or Gold—the colors of Easter and therefore of Resurrection hope.

SACRAMENTAL PROGRAM: HOLY COMMUNION

Holy communion will be held on Sunday 29th May at 12pm, with classes commencing Saturday 30 April, classes will be held on Saturdays at 4pm and Sundays at 9am. The classes will be held on the weekend of the 30 April/1 May, 14/15 May, 21/22 May, there will be no classes on the weekend of 7/8 May due to Mother's Day.

... be patient toward all that is unsolved in your heart and try to love the questions themselves like locked rooms and like books that are now written in a very foreign tongue. Do not now seek the answers, which cannot be given you because you would not be able to live them. And the point is, to live everything. Live the questions now. Perhaps you will then gradually, without noticing it, live along some distant day into the answer. Resolve to be always beginning - to be a beginner!

INTERNATIONAL MOTHER EARTH DAY THEME: EARTH DAY 2022: INVEST IN OUR PLANET

This is the first Mother Earth Day celebrated within the UN Decade on Ecosystem Restoration. Ecosystems support all life on Earth. The healthier our ecosystems are, the healthier the planet - and its people. Restoring our damaged ecosystems will help to end poverty, combat climate change and prevent mass extinction. But we will only succeed if everyone plays a part.

For this International Mother Earth Day, let's remind ourselves - more than ever - that we need a shift to a more sustainable economy that works for both people and the planet. Let's promote harmony with nature and the Earth. Join the global movement to restore our world!

NEVER FORGET YOU

For reflection on ANZAC – remembering the dead and promoting unwar.

*'Your friends will never forget you',
the fluttering leaflet said,
'Your friends will never forget you',
and then o'er the valley spread,
The wide sky cowed in sorrow,
and the eyes of the angels wept,
For a promise made by the soldiers
that their leaders never kept.*

*For the soldiers are there when you need 'em,
they're there to suffer and die,
And to make the eyes of the angels weep
in the depths of the tropical sky,
And the soldiers are there laugh it off,
and shoulder their blistering gun,
And fight anew, in the mud light glue,
and the sweat of the tropical sun.*

*And solders were there, and their mates were there,
their mates, the East Timorese,
Who fought and died beside them in the night of the jungle trees,
Who fought and bled and suffered so Australia might still be free,
And the Aussies cried, when their leaders lied, and poisoned the Timor Sea.*

*'Your friends will never forget you',
the fluttering leaflet said,
Dropped from the biscuit bomber,
and then o'er the valley spread,
'Your friends will never forget you',
and the eyes of the angels wept,
For a promise made by the soldiers
that their leaders never kept.*

25 April Anzac Day This day marks the landing of Australian and New Zealand soldiers at Gallipoli during the Great War of 1914-1918. It has become a national day of remembrance in which we honour the courage and self-sacrifice of those who have served in all wars, conflicts, and peacekeeping operations. The liturgy recognizes the sacrifice of the fallen, commends them to eternal life, and prays that the justice and peace which they sought to defend may dwell in our lands.
