ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF COUNTRY

We acknowledge and celebrate that this land is of the Wangal people of the Darug nation on which we are gathered. We commit ourselves to work together for reconciliation, justice and peace.

Responsorial Psalm: In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Happy the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs! Alleluia!

The saying "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die," must have had an ancient origin because it's quoted (unfavourably) by the prophet Isaiah (22:13). From there it found its way into Paul's first letter to the Corinthians (15:32). The extra phrase, "and be merry," seems to have derived from that rather un-merry author, Qoheleth (8:15).

Not only has the saying remained current, but also the question it raises. What is a healthy attitude to worldly goods? The very word "goods" recalls God's pronouncement that all things created were good, indeed very good (Gen 1:31). Yet the New Testament writings, especially the synoptic gospels, are full of warnings about the clear and present danger of becoming possessed and enslaved by what we own.

Steering a course between an aversion to earthly things and a pre-occupation with them is always a work in progress. The key phrase, of course, is freedom of heart. Pope Francis offers an encouraging word: "We are able to take an honest look at ourselves, to acknowledge our deep dissatisfaction, and to embark on new paths to authentic freedom. No system can completely suppress our openness to what is good, true and beautiful, or our God-given ability to respond to his grace at work deep in our hearts" (Laudato si' #205).

MASS INTENTIONS:

The Parish of St Anne's welcomes and accepts Mass intentions from all who wish to have their needs and prayers mentioned during the celebration of the Eucharist.

Please print clearly the intention and if it is for a person or people indicate if they have passed away or are alive. Please write the preferred date and a time you would like to have this Mass offered.

Do not put a Mass intention envelope on the collection plate. The more practical way is to hand it to a priest, a deacon, or an acolyte, or bring it to the parish office on Tuesday only.

From now on Mass intentions will be printed in the bulletin. If you do not wish to have your intention appear in the bulletin or to be mentioned from the pulpit, please mark clearly "Not For Publication" on the envelope.

I would like to take this opportunity and sincerely apologise for the inconvenience caused regarding Mass intentions in the last few weeks.

Whatever you do, you need courage. Whatever course you decide upon, there is always someone to tell you that you are wrong. There are always difficulties arising that tempt you to believe your critics are right. To map out a course of action and follow it to an end requires some of the same courage that a soldier needs. Peace has its victories, but it takes brave men and women to win them.

SCRIPTURAL CONTEXT

Do not worry

This parable and teaching about the love of wealth is followed up by Jesus telling his disciples not to worry about what they will eat and what they will wear. He invites them to look to the birds of the air and flowers of the fields. God provides them with all that they need. Jesus tells his disciples to seek the kingdom and all the other necessities of life will be given to them as well. Rather than focusing on accumulating wealth as the rich man in today's parable, Jesus reassures his disciples that if they focus their lives on the kingdom they will have all that they need.

We welcome anyone concerned with the illness of alcoholism or addiction who wish to join with us in prayer for the virtue of total abstinence, promoting our spiritual development, and striving for the sanctification of the whole personality of each member. Contact calixsydney@outlook.com for meeting times and resources. Perhaps this could be a crucial step toward recovery and saving a life.

The Transfiguration of the Lord (The feast had its origin in the East in the fourth century as the commemoration of the dedication of the church of the Transfiguration on Mount Tabor. It was observed in the West from the eighth century and extended to the entire Western Church in the fifteenth century. The feast celebrates the divine radiance shining in Christ's human flesh and God's glory shining forth in the lives of Christians).
